Problem Solving Challenge 5

With a partner, use the problem solving approach covered on day 1. Write out an algorithm on paper along with hand calculations to determine expected output.

Find the largest and the smallest number from data read from a file. Use the same data file as the example we did in class.